DEVELOPING AN INTEGRATED BOARD TABLE FOR ORGANIZATION ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES MONITORING

Mihaela Luminita Lupu*, Nicoleta Oniciuc, Costache Rusu

“Gh. Asachi” Technical University of Iasi, Management and Engineering of Production Systems Department, 53 Mangeron Blvd., Romania

Abstract

The paper presents a specific methodology for integrating environmental board table development, according to an environmental indicators system, for managers from all levels, according to their specific interests. The methodology necessary to develop an integrated environmental board table consists in: identifying the main organization’ environment problems, identifying environment responsibilities for an organization departments, according to organizational structure, establishing environment managerial decisions/ compartments, identifying environment decision – environment indicators – decision center correlations, establishing structure and environment board table model on every department, constructing environmental relationship diagram for every department.

Keywords: environment indicators system, integrate environment board table, methodology

* Author to whom all correspondence should be addressed: e-mail: luminitalupu2004@yahoo.co.uk